

Screenshot Explanation 4

“Data” after clicking on a product – “553218”

product – header:

- Request URL: <https://makeup.ro/product/553218/>
- Request Method: GET
→ Returns the requested resource – in this case, product “553218”.
- Status Code: 200 OK
→ The request was successfully processed by the server;
The response contains the requested data.

product – preview:

Displays a preview of product “553218”.

product – response:

The response represents the HTML document/code for product “553218”.

“Data” after the product was added to the shopping cart:

cart – header:

- Request URL: <https://makeup.ro/ajax/cart/>
- Request Method: PUT
→ The PUT method is used to upload data to the server and to update or create a resource.
- Status Code: 200 OK
→ The request was successfully processed by the server;
The product was added to the cart.

cart – payload:

Contains data about the product that was sent in the request to the server.

In this case, the response is a JSON object with the following values:

json

CopyEdit

```
{productID: 553218, variantID: 1354999, skipContent: 0, ecommerce: 1}
```

cart – preview:

The preview shows data about the product added to the cart, as well as recommended products.

cart – response:

The response is an HTML document that includes “page details” and product details such as: ID, name, price, and quantity.